PANEL'S COMMENTS

- YOLANDA BE COOL:

- A post-race Veterinary examination revealed the gelding to be lame in the left fore.
- Trainer Rachael Cunningham was advised that prior to racing again, the gelding would require a Veterinary certificate of fitness.
- Since race day trainer Rachael Cunningham advised Yolanda Be Cool has been diagnosed with a tendon injury and has been put out for a spell with intention to come back and compete next jumps season.

- GOTTA CELLARBRATE:

- A post-race Veterinary examination of the gelding revealed no abnormalities.
- No action has been taken against Gotta Cellarbrate.

- Rider Braidon Small has been referred to RV's jumps jockey coach Adrian Garraway for coaching.

F	02. Zanteco(NZ)	John Allen		$1.60F	69	Jumped the first hurdle awkwardly. Made a faulty jump at the eighth hurdle and fell.

PANEL'S COMMENTS

- ZANTECO:

- A post-race Veterinary examination revealed a small amount of blood from the left nostril, however no other abnormalities.
- Further the Veterinary surgeon was satisfied that the blood was a result of external trauma and therefore Zanteco was not deemed to be a one nostril bleeder.-
- No action has been taken against Zanteco as the Panel believe the gelding was jumping satisfactorily and fell as a result of over racing leading into the eighth.
- The Weir stable were advised that prior to racing again, the gelding would require a veterinary certificate of clearance.

PANEL'S COMMENTS

- KOURKAM:

- A post-race Veterinary examination revealed the gelding to be lame in the near foreleg.
- The McEvoy stable was advised that prior to racing again, the gelding would require a Veterinary certificate of fitness.
- As this was Kourkam's first jumps race and it was jumping satisfactorily leading up to the ninth obstacle, no action has been taken.
